The Kellogg Herd

ABOUT four years ago when Miss Lois Kellogg II, Alremont, Nevada, started to build her herd of Shorthorns she came to Iowa, visited Helfred Farms and bought the best individuals with the best pedigrees that could be acquired. She bought many from this great herd and she bought several from other of Iowa's leading establishments. She never bought one just because it was cheap or for any other reason than that it was a first class individual and had a pedigree that assured good progeny. That is why she now has one of the best herds of Shorthorns in the entire United States.

As the herd is now constituted there are six daughters and eighteen granddaughters of the International grand champion Collynie Clipper Star. There are seven daughters of Sni-A-Bar Golden Ring, the bull the get of which have been outstanding winners at recent State fairs taking, among other honors, first prize get of sire at the Iowa State fair for F. W. Hubbell.

There are two daughters of the noted First of All, sire of the season's outstanding bull calf. There are three daughters of Helfred Royal, the impressive Schuerman herd bull and two daughters of the Champion, Helfred Style. Browndale's Beau, grand champion of the National Beef Cattle show last year, is the sire of three excellent females and his noted sire Gainford Browndale has five daughters in the sale. Other bulls that have sired members of this choice herd include the famous Ballylin Rodney, Sni-A-Bar Gift, Villager's Choice, Villager's Last, Beau Villager and Goldspur's Villager 2d. Then there are sixteen heifers that are daughters of Rex Oliver of Helfred, one of Collynie Clipper Star's most impressive sons.

Every female was selected with great care and with the advice of experts. Individual merit was the first consideration, but none were accepted that did not have most attractive pedigrees. Every animal will come into the ring with a perfect bill of health and a certificate showing tests for T. B. and the Bangs made after their return to Iowa within three weeks of the sale.

Miss Kellogg has spared no expense in keeping these Shorthorns in the best condition. These are not run down or partially starved cattle. They are in condition to show their merit. The cows are all excellent mothers and regular breeders. Twenty-five of them will have calves at foot when sold. Most of the rest are soon to calve. No better or safer investment can be made by a Corn-belt farmer than that of buying females from this herd. In doing so you will secure the best available Shorthorn blood and Shorthorn individuals. A few good young bulls round out the offering.

This catalog will give some idea of the excellence of the offering but one cannot appreciate fully the attractiveness of these splendid Shorthorns without seeing them. Come to the sale.

WILL JOHNSON, Sale Mgr.
3709 Sixth Ave., Sioux City, Iowa.

Auctioneer—J. E. Halsey.
